

Democrats' insatiable desire to expand the Federal Government beyond recognition, beyond the recognition not only of our Founders, but of our citizens here today, and to, once again, jam through their partisan priorities.

These spending levels are beyond fiscally unsustainable. They are going to push us to the brink of bankruptcy, into a place where we can see the sovereign debt crisis from the precipice upon which we stand. We won't be able to print money or borrow to bail out of that crisis, Mr. Speaker.

American families have worked hard. They have made sacrifices, tightening up their belts. And by the way, dealing with the every-man tax of inflation while our Democrat colleagues continue to push these massive spending bills. It is completely irresponsible.

It is unbelievable that my Democrat colleagues would ask the American people for a 21 percent pay raise, $100 billion. The White House wants a 40 percent pay raise for the crimes fight, for the chaos at the border, for the inflation, for the fact that their policies have locked people into unemployment, and the policies they are proposing will trap them in poverty for the rest of their lives, and generations to follow.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Mr. Speaker, I yield an additional 1 minute to my good friend.

Mr. ARRINGTON. Mr. Speaker, aside from the insulting disregard for our national debt for our children and grandchildren, this is the greatest threat. It is not the existential threats. It is our insatiable appetite to expand the government, government's power, and the costs associated.

If these bills, these supposed funding bills are enacted, here are the policies that will follow:

Abortion providers will be funded and abortion, and the abortion manufacturers that abort, terminate unborn children at a rate of almost 1,000 a day.

Allow illegal immigrants to receive our tax dollar financial aid and Federal employment. What a disrespect to the law-abiding American citizens.

Choke out our ag and energy producers with extreme environmental policies, disrupt the supply chain, undermine our ag and energy independence.

The list is too long, Mr. Speaker.

Give contraceptives to students without parental knowledge.

Fund sex changes at the VA.

These are the priorities, these are the values reflected in the budget of my colleagues?

Mr. Speaker, this is a radical re-imagination of government's role in the life of its citizens and a drastic departure from America's values and interests, and I oppose it. I pray to God I can get a Democrat to oppose it. I doubt it.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mr. ROY. Mr. Speaker, I offer a privileged motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Roy moves that the House do now adjourn.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to adjourn offered by the gentleman from Texas (Mr. ROY).

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the yeas appeared to have it.

Mr. ROY. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(s) of House Resolution 8, the yeas and nays are ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 197, nays 225, not voting 8, as follows:

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from New York has 6 minutes remaining. The gentleman from Pennsylvania has 3½ minutes remaining.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York.

Mr. MORELLE. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. RESCENTIALER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, the three bills made in order by today's rules are overfunded to the expense of our Nation's military. They strip longstanding bipartisan provisions and include far left, radical poison pills, they will not be taken up by the Senate, and they will not become law.

Given the looming September 30 deadline to fund the government, I would just hope that my colleagues, my liberal colleagues across the aisle, would work with Republicans to craft a bipartisan appropriation measure that can make it to the President's desk.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote "no" on the previous question and "no" on the rule. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MORELLE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

I note a great irony. We face enormous challenges in our country and in our world. But the Members who refuse to wear masks on the floor in the face of rising infections of a deadly delta variant, particularly in States with low vaccination rates, respond to all of this by making a motion to adjourn, to go home, to quit, to stop working. How ironic.

My father, who was a proud pipefitter, Local 13, back in Rochester, New York, said, You never quit. You never quit until the job is done.

Mr. Speaker, in addition to not quitting, I note another irony. My colleagues across the aisle are suddenly troubled by deficits. Never mind that nearly $2 trillion has been added to the national debt by cutting the taxes of billionaires. Aiding the rich, but not investing in the lives of middle class and working Americans? We reject that notion entirely.

Mr. Speaker, many of my Republican colleagues speaking on the rule today painted a dystopian view of our country. Yes, we have challenges: a climate crisis, a public health crisis, economic concerns, and great racial inequities. That is why the investments we are proposing are so critically important today.

But, Mr. Speaker, I reject the dystopian view. I believe America is the greatest country in the history of humankind, and my colleagues, we share an optimistic view. We want to invest in an America where everyone has a chance to realize their potential, and to achieve their dreams.

We want to invest our resources and energies to create a safer, more secure, more prosperous world, and to strive mightily to build a more perfect union.

Mr. Speaker, I urge a "yes" vote on the rule and the previous question.

The material previously referred to by Mr. RESCENTIALER is as follows:

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RESOLUTION H. RES. 567

At the end of the resolution, add the following:

SEC. 13. Immediately upon adoption of this resolution, the House shall proceed to the consideration in the House of the bill (H.R. 471) to prohibit the Secretary of Health and Human Services from lessening the stringency of, and to prohibit the Secretary of Homeland Security from ceasing or lessening implementation of, the COVID-19 border health provisions through the end of the COVID-19 pandemic, and for other purposes. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived. The bill shall be considered as read. All points of order against provisions in the bill are waived. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and on any amendment thereto to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) one hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Energy and Commerce; and (2) one motion to recommend.

SEC. 14. Clause 1(c) of rule XIX shall not apply to the consideration of H.R. 471.

Mr. MORELLE. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time, and I move the previous question on the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. BROWN). The question is on ordering the previous question.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. RESCENTIALER. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(s) of House Resolution 8, the yeas and nays are ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 217, nays 208, not voting 5, as follows:
